

Active and Healthy Aging Community

Special Purposes

- To develop projects for healthy aging.
- To raise awareness of the society by making active and healthy aging recognizable.
- To ensure the participation of the elderly in daily life.

Nutrition and Diet Society

Special Purposes

- To raise awareness of the society and accessible individuals, especially the students of Mehmet Akif Ersoy University, about proper nutrition.
- To organize and participate in activities such as all kinds of scientific researches, seminars, interviews, panels, congresses, technical trips and symposiums on nutrition and dietetics with community members.
- To support the efforts to combat obesity in Burdur in coordination with the Provincial Health Directorate.
- To carry out studies on the presentation of healthy products in canteens and cafeterias serving in educational institutions in Burdur, especially in our University.
- To carry out educational and encouraging activities in educational institutions on healthy living and proper nutrition.
- Communicate with other colleagues by opening a social media account belonging to the community.

Computer Engineering Society

Special Purposes

- To introduce the Department of Computer Engineering and to lay the groundwork for students to prepare for business life
- To write research, produce projects, and carry out activities that complement the academic program in line with the wishes and wishes of the students.
- To enable students to keep up with the latest technology and improve themselves in this regard.

Living Beings and Science Society

Special Purposes

- To carry out various activities where we can share scientific information about living things
- To create interest and curiosity in people towards science and sensitivity towards living things
- To investigate and examine the interaction of living things (Plant, Animal, Human) with each other and with their environment

Children's and Science Society

Special Purposes

innovations in the world

- To enable them to gain skills in accordance with the needs of the age in the 21st century and to develop a scientific perspective
 - Supporting them to gain skills to become scientists
 - To be able to raise science-literate individuals
 - To actively participate in the planning, implementation and evaluation processes of scientific activities in the early period
 - To keep up with scientific and technological developments and
- To participate in scientific activities organized in and outside the province in order to be aware of scientific and technological developments and to organize trips for this purpose.

Electrical and Electronics Engineering Society

Special Purposes

internships

- To contribute to the professional development of students who are members of the community.
 - To encourage the follow-up of information and technological developments
 - Helping students who are members of the community find
- To ensure the technical development of community members through various trips, conferences and seminars

Financial Community

Special Purposes

- It aims to increase the knowledge and experience of university students who are interested in Economics and Finance Departments, to answer questions about these fields accurately and in detail, and to raise awareness of people about the subjects.
- It aims to provide a university student with a wide range of knowledge about the branches of science by introducing economics and finance sciences at the maximum level.
- As the Economics and Finance Society, our duty is to revive the friendly environment and team spirit by bringing together people who are interested in economics and finance, who are open to innovations, and who can handle events from different dimensions, and to develop together by raising awareness of our members and stakeholders.
- In addition, it has special purposes such as having a structure that prioritizes social benefit with events and activities to be held in different areas.

Physiotherapy Society

Special Purposes

- To recognize and promote physiotherapy, to organize social and academic activities for this reason,
- To follow the articles, publications and conferences related to physiotherapy and rehabilitation and to announce them to university students
- To increase the communication between academic staff and students in the academic and social fields at our university
- To highlight the name of our university with such projects by developing various social responsibility projects
- To meet social needs such as recreation and leisure by providing opportunities within the framework of community opportunities.

Technology and Innovation Community for the Future

Special Purposes

- To contribute to the development of Burdur Mehmet Akif Ersoy University students with technology through community activities,
- To contribute to the professional and personal development of Burdur Mehmet Akif Ersoy University students in software and current technologies with training workshops, seminars, conferences and similar activities,
- To organize trips on different thematic topics (technology, nature, health, etc.) for Burdur Mehmet Akif Ersoy University students
- To strengthen the link between students' technology and their professions through community activities
- Planning activities such as competitions, debates, etc. for students and faculty members
- To participate in and organize non-university studies and projects that will contribute to community members in terms of professional development.
- To develop models of joint work and cooperation with community stakeholders (projects, seminars, conferences, sponsorships, competitions, workshops, technical trips.

Special Purposes

Burdur Mehmet Akif Ersoy Üniversitesi - BURDUR

- To educate and raise awareness of the public about the protection of natural assets and environmental health, the fight against erosion, the protection of soil cover and soil, and the importance of afforestation in our country
- To inform and raise awareness of our people about the consequences of the erosion disaster and the measures to be taken, and thus to create conscious and effective public support
- To produce studies on the protection of biodiversity, soil, water and natural environment, to appropriate the love of trees and forests to the society
- To protect and develop our natural riches by using them unconsciously and not allowing them to disappear irreversibly, and to secure the future of Turkey
- To carry out activities to protect and develop natural assets, human health, green areas, soil and vegetation, forests and pastures and to ensure the creation of new ones.
- To carry out training activities at all levels for this purpose, to give seminars
- To contribute to our students to be individuals who are at peace with nature and think about the future.

Special Purposes

- To carry out activities to provide students with an R&D culture
- To encourage its members and interested students to apply to programs such as TÜBİTAK 2209-A University Students Domestic Research Projects Support Program for research and development (R&D) activities in the field of Food Engineering, etc.
- To organize technical trips to public and private sector enterprises operating in the field of Food Engineering and sectoral fairs in order to increase the knowledge, manners and experience of their members.
- To organize scientific and social activities such as seminars, exhibitions, conferences, workshops and symposiums on R&D activities and related subjects and to contribute to the activities on these subjects
- To contribute to the organization of Certificate Programs (Total Quality Management Systems, etc.) on various subjects related to Food Engineering
- To organize various activities in order to ensure the development of students in social issues and to improve their skills in working together

Food Community

Special Purposes

- To raise awareness of Mehmet Akif Ersoy University staff and students on various issues related to food, to enlighten students about finding a job and developing a career in academia and industry by connecting with experienced faculty members with the food industry, to provide the opportunity to get to know the food industry closely, and to help them train themselves socially and technically.

Society of Enterprising Engineers

Special Purposes

- To represent our university in national and international competitions by developing projects where different Engineering Department students have the opportunity to work together.
- To contribute to the personal and professional development of the members of the community, to provide job, internship, seminar and technical trip opportunities, to present papers on developments and innovations in the engineering sector to its members.
- To raise awareness about our responsibility as students of the Faculty of Engineering for producing and growing TURKEY, to implement all kinds of intellectual projects that can create value and added value and to create a sustainable ecosystem, and to mature with trainings in terms of personal and mental development in order to gain a place in this ecosystem

IEEE Student Society

Special Purposes

- Thanks to our innovative suggestions and business discipline, to be a favorite student club preferred by companies in Turkey and in the world
- Raising awareness in IEEE Turkey
- To be a student community with the most heard and active students at Mehmet Akif Ersoy University

IVSA Burdur Veterinary Students Association Community

Special Purposes

IVSA BURDUR

- To develop cooperation with national and international Veterinary Faculties students
- To contribute to the issues related to Veterinary Education at the international level
- To work on animal welfare and health and human health
- Representing Mehmet Akif Ersoy University in International IVSA Organizations
- To increase students' interest and support for international relations
- To organize or participate in events such as congresses, symposiums, panels and courses at national and international level that enable the students of the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine to develop their knowledge, skills and culture.

Climate Change Society

Special Purposes

- To increase the sensitivity of students to the environment and climate they live in at Burdur Mehmet Akif Ersoy University
- To eliminate, reduce and prevent environmental pollution, to use natural resources without harming the ecological balance, to secure the environment
 - To reduce and prevent the effects of climate change, to reduce global greenhouse gas emissions, especially carbon dioxide.

Human Rights and Freedoms Community

Special Purposes

- Organizing educational activities to raise awareness of the society on aid and solidarity
- Preparing and implementing aid projects for people in need
- Organizing conferences and seminars for young people in social, cultural, moral and academic fields
- Organizing low-budget cultural trips
- To organize information activities about activities on a voluntary basis

Unmanned Vehicles Community

Special Purposes

- To develop with innovative ideas in the rapidly developing technology world
- To strive for the further advancement of Zeliha Tolunay School of Applied Technology and Business Administration within Mehmet Akif Ersoy University
- Acting together, working as a team, away from individuality, developing and developing

Society for the Science of Laboratory Animals

Special Purposes

- To get to know this sector and introduce it to students
- Expanding business opportunities internationally
- To announce the name of our university with the congresses to be held

LöseV Benefit Society

Special Purposes

- Introducing LÖSEV
- Introducing the LEUKEMIA Disease
- To explain the misconceptions about marrow transplantation for patients with leukemia,

Maku Economic Society

Special Purposes

- To encourage students to follow academic and scientific developments in the field of economics, to develop and reinforce their competencies.
- To ensure that students are aware of career opportunities in this field through distinguished invitations and activities and to raise self-confident, competent individuals who are familiar with the business world and ready for working life.
- To support the personal development of students through various cultural and social activities as well as activities in the field of economics and to strengthen their sense of belonging to the department/university

Special Purposes

- To ensure that the members of the community, including the stray animals in the Istiklal Campus of Mehmet Akif Ersoy University, feed the animals in the areas where they reside and shelter them in a safe and peaceful environment,
- To meet the health and care needs of injured, sick and needy animals,
- To carry out sterilization studies under the control of a veterinarian in order to keep the population of stray animals on campus under control,
- To instill love for animals in all segments of the society by raising public awareness about animal rights and treatment of animals by organizing academic and social activities,

Special Purposes

- To be instrumental in the cooperation and solidarity of international students.
- To meet and mingle with Turkish students.
- To promote Turkish culture and Turkey.
- To contribute to peace and friendship by promoting different cultures and values.
- To contribute to the social-cultural and spiritual development of students.
- To increase sensitivity to humanitarian problems in the world.
- To contribute to the promotion of Burdur.
- To support the adaptation process of international students who are newly enrolled in the university.
- Develop management and organizational abilities and business skills.

Special Purposes

- To closely follow scientific developments in the field of Molecular Biology and Genetics
- Sharing scientific knowledge through events and establishing social networks with scientists
- Introduction of Molecular Biology and Genetics to the society

Special Purposes

- To provide trainings, organize events, form teams and represent our University with more teams at Teknofest, the largest festival in the world, in order to increase the number of applications and finalists for Teknofest competitions within our university.
- To carry out innovative, prestigious projects that add multidimensional value to the environment in which they are located together with our members and to participate in national and international competitions with the projects produced
- To be a community that builds bridges between the leading companies in the sector and organizes technical trips to these companies, together with the students who produce with the slogan of the national technology move
- Providing the necessary support for the transformation and corporatization of the projects created by our community members into initiatives

Special Purposes

- To ensure the spread of the culture of seeking rights
- Improving the service quality of the administration
- Establish the principles of good governance
- To ensure the development of human rights
- Ensuring the rule of law
- It is to plan to carry out studies and cultural programs in order to create a more transparent, accountable, people-oriented administration.

Special Purposes

- To contribute to the growth of Mehmet Akif Ersoy University students as people who know themselves and desire self-realization by supporting their educational and psychosocial development, and to meet the social needs of students such as self-expression, meeting different people and acquiring effective communication skills by providing opportunities within the framework of community opportunities.

Special Purposes

- To raise awareness on health-related issues among the students of our university
- To raise public awareness about healthy living
- To carry out remedial activities for the surrounding village schools
- Visits to elderly care centers and kindergartens
- To organize seminars, conferences and trips that will contribute to the personal development of Bucak School of Health students
- To encourage Bucak School of Health students to scientific studies

Social Work Community

Special Purposes

- In parallel with the objectives of the social work/social work profession; To carry out activities that will provide social and development change at the level of society, community and group, individual and family
- For all interested students of Burdur Mehmet Akif Ersoy University; To organize activities such as trainings, seminars, workshops, etc., on subjects that will contribute to their personal, spiko social, cultural and professional development
- To carry out joint activities with social service organizations throughout the province and in the surrounding provinces and to represent Burdur Mehmet Akif Ersoy University
- To plan activities and activities within the scope of volunteering for those who receive services from social service institutions, to carry out these activities in accordance with the legal regulations, within the framework of professional ethical principles and rules
- To carry out activities that provide social inclusion and raise awareness about vulnerable groups, which are the focus of the social work/social work profession, especially on special days and weeks (such as the week of the elderly, the week of the disabled), on the campuses of Burdur Mehmet Akif Ersoy University and in other places and places where legal permission is obtained.

Social Work Community

Special Purposes

- To ensure unity and solidarity by carrying out aid activities together
- Striving to prevent social inequality and injustice
- To visit the social assistance and solidarity facilities in the vicinity and to promote Burdur and Mehmet Akif Ersoy University
- To be able to create social awareness among other students and the public through the activities to be carried out

Special Purposes

- To identify social problems and demands and to organize solution-oriented activities in order to contribute to the integrity of the university and society.
- To develop projects, events and workshops for the awareness of national, cultural, universal, social, etc. values
- To bring together people who have achieved success in social life with university students

TÜBİTAK and European Union Project Writing and Application Top.

Special Purposes

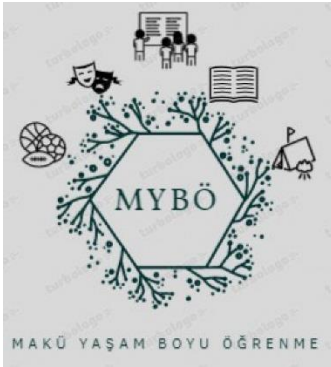

- Dissemination of the project culture on university students
- TÜBİTAK and EU Projects information and writing trainings
- To increase the number of both TÜBİTAK and European Union Projects with the contributions of Burdur Mehmet Akif Ersoy University within our university.

A Community of Hands Reaching Out to Life

Special Purposes

- To ensure that all citizens, especially school-age children, are taught the correct first aid information that will ensure the survival of the sick/injured until the emergency ambulance teams arrive or until they are delivered to a health institution.
- Its special objectives are to share knowledge and experience on first and emergency aid and to organize trainings in the community in order to provide professional development.

Special Purposes

- To raise individuals who respect nature and are aware of the risks of nature sports by operating in every branch of nature sports that have entered the world literature.
- Provided that it is educational or instructive; To provide new achievements to students through activities such as seminars, interviews, exhibitions and symposiums
- To organize trips and activities by ensuring the social, cultural, artistic and sports development of Mehmet Akif Ersoy University students,
- To communicate with educational institutions in national and international fields and to work in the fields of social culture, business, sports, art and health.
- To create the right perception about private and public institutions among the members and in the society and to ensure the flow of information
- Participating in or organizing events in order to improve the awareness and experience of the members about their career opportunities and self-abilities
- To develop social relations based on solidarity, respect and love among students by uniting our university and other university community members with bonds of mutual understanding
- To carry out joint studies with the communities of other universities in order to make Mehmet Akif Ersoy University known worldwide, to organize cultural, social, sports and scientific activities with individuals and organizations,
- To work in partnership with charities and social service foundations within the framework of social responsibility awareness
- To add new values to the state of the Republic of Turkey by making Mehmet Akif Ersoy University a center of science-culture and education-culture
- To comprehend the branches of science and to follow the developments in these fields
- To support the development of students by operating in every sports and art branch that has entered the world literature.
- Nature has adopted its respect and love; To raise individuals who develop their living spaces by valuing each species and ecology in nature
- To provide services to the society by raising individuals who are conscious and educated about natural disasters.

Special Purposes

- With extracurricular activities outside the academic program; promote the design and implementation of software, hardware, control, robotics, e-learning and other technological systems; To open courses for students on the basic techniques of information technologies. To train the students who attend the courses and to gain competence in the field of informatics and to organize various trips and exhibitions by carrying out applications and activities in this direction. To transfer the knowledge and skills gained in expert disciplines to MAKU in the spirit of teamwork and unity

Special Purposes

- To ensure that Mehmet Akif Ersoy University students are useful individuals in social life
- To learn the problems of the society in the fields of activity of the Green Crescent, to try to solve them at various levels with theoretical and practical methods,
- To organize social activities in order to ensure solidarity and cooperation among the students of Mehmet Akif Ersoy University regarding the activities of the Green Crescent
- To enable club members to gain ideas and experience through activities to be carried out jointly with other clubs within the university and non-governmental organizations.

Special Purposes

- Burdur Mehmet Akif Ersoy University Sustainability Student Club is a community that brings together students who are interested in sustainability within the university. It elects its own President of the Community.
- This community aims to raise awareness on environmental awareness, nature conservation, energy saving, recycling and sustainable living and to develop projects on these issues. In addition, the community organizes events, providing students and the university community with the opportunity to increase their knowledge and awareness of sustainability.
- Such communities aim to raise individuals who are sensitive to environmental and social problems.